Incident and Arrest Blotter

Summary	Police responded to the CVS Pharmacy on Western Avenue for a report of a theft in progress. Police were given the description of a male subject who took some merchandise and ran from the store without paying. Police located the suspect, Gutierrez, walking on Vine Avenue. When police spoke to Gutierrez they found him in possession of several packages of cold medicine valued at over $500.00. Gutierrez initially gave officers a false name but further investigation resulted in a correct name and identifiers. Officers learned Gutierrez had warrants out of both Will and Grundy counties for Failure to Appear on previous theft charges. Officers contacted the Lake County States Attorney for approval of charges, and Gutierrez was subsequently charged with Retail Theft (2 counts) and Obstruction of Justice. Gutierrez was processed and held pending transport to the Lake County jail for a bond hearing.
